

Shannon and Dana Gorbahn Family Christmas Letter

2019

Merry Christmas to all of our Friends and Families – Our Christmas wish is that we all feel the power, the peace, the assurance, and confidence of the atonement which is brought to us because of the gift that our Father in Heaven gave the world with the birth of our loving older brother – even Jesus Christ.

Jadyn (jadyndanika2000@gmail.com):

Hello Gorbahn family! Like last year, it was a crazy year. Moving seemed to be my middle name. Mom and dad got Kai and I a place in Calgary. I sold almost everything that I had to get ready for the move in May. I was very upset when we had to sell the baby grand piano. It was very emotional to me. Even with selling so much stuff, my dad had a full massive trailer to take to Calgary. The place they bought was perfect for me and my puppy Louie. I have the basement that has a full patio door that Louie can go out into the yard. He gets excited about the rabbits that run around here. While looking for work I forgot how to get back to my car at a parkade in downtown Calgary. It took me 4 days to find it!! I was so upset and thought someone had stolen it. I found it hard to get a job that I wanted and missing friends, so decided to move back to Smithers with mom and dad for a few months of the summer to work and be with friends again. I went fishing with my dad for a couple of times and I actually caught a salmon. I love doing this with my dada! In the fall, I went back to Calgary to be with Kai. He is such a great older brother and to be with Louie again. I missed that little guy! Since being back in Calgary, I have picked up a few jobs. I do some deliveries for Kai and am a personal assistant for a man. I'm looking for more opportunities to earn money. I am looking forward to my brothers and Mom and Dad coming to Calgary for Christmas this year!

Kaleb (gorbahn.kaleb@gmail.com): Merry Christmas and Happy New Years everyone. What a year it has been and I couldn't be more thankful for the highs and lows of the year. For the last 15 month I've been playing professionally golf and I've been able to see some really cool places doing it. During the winter time I was living in Arizona playing mini tour events, I then went back to Canada was living in both Calgary and Vancouver playing golf tournaments. What was really cool for me was my dad and I went to England for the European tour q school, unfortunately I got a pretty bad allergic reaction from something I still don't know. So it did put a damper on the trip but it was really cool seeing another country and see the places where my old man went for his mission. My plans moving forward is after Christmas I'll Ben heading down to Mexico to try and qualify for the Latin America tour. I am also signed up for the South African tour but I'm unsure if I'm going to go or not. I'm looking forward to another year of trying my best to make it to the PGA Tour. I hope you all have a wonderfully Christmas and an excellent new year. Love you all!

Taaron (taarongorbahn@gmail.com): Happy Holidays family! 2019 has been a fantastic year with some awesome opportunities and great successes. Work continues to be amazing and I've had the honor of attending several industry conferences and organizing company events this year. I'm very lucky to have a career I love while working on cool and interesting projects with truly talented people. Living in Victoria continues to be incredible. When I'm not zoned into work, I enjoy spending time with my best friends sharing music, watching videos, cooking dinners, playing games and telling stories. I'm unbelievably thankful and grateful for my family. I'm so very proud of my siblings and I have the world's most loving and supportive parents. Lots of love to you all, and until next year!

Kai (kaigorbahn@gmail.com) : This has been a wonderful year for me. I moved to Calgary without knowing anyone here and things couldn't have turned out better. I was very grateful that a few months ago my sister moved here as well! We have a place together and when Kaleb isn't touring in the golf world he spends his time with us. Having family around is a huge blessing. Right now I work at a restaurant, Boston Pizza, and have a position as supervisor. It's a really fun opportunity that I was given to learn new work skills. I love the people I work with and I work for a great company. Hope you have a great Christmas. Love you all.

Shannon (gorbahn@telus.net):

It's been an incredible year of many blessings. We are officially empty nesters, we downsized from our big family home to a smaller place and I really love our little house. I continue to teach Yoga at our beautiful yoga studio and work our Float Therapy business. We have travelled to Arizona twice this year the first time included a fabulous trip to New York with my super sexy husband for our 30th anniversary and again in November with my mom and brother, it was a great two weeks to reconnect. We will spending Christmas in Calgary with all 4 of our kids. Sure do love them and am so proud of the amazing adults they have become. We wish you a wonderful Christmas much love Shannon

Dana (par@telus.net) : I've been talking about it for years and I finally did it – I semi-retired. I stepped down from the CEO and Executive Director's positions with a couple of charities/organizations that I helped develop for the past 13 years. This happened in the spring – and I am so glad that I have. While the extra income is missed – the stress is not. I am free to do a whole lot more without the worries. I have been able to golf more (18 holes instead of 9 before work); and in the fall, I could go fishing in the afternoons after a morning in the office. I've started doing some basic woodworking. With all of the kids being gone – and with tears in our eyes because of their departures, we sold our big home that has had so many family memories. We moved to one of our rental homes. We spent a lot of resources on fixing it up the year before and then over this summer we completely redid the outside. An amazing transformation. We are very happy in the downsizing. My business of 23 years continues to run very well with two very proficient supervisors which really only requires me to do the financial/payroll requirements – with a little bit of accreditation administration requirements. I was lucky enough to spend a stretch of the spring and summer caddying for Kaleb for some McKenzie (Canadian) PGA Tour events. As Kaleb mentioned, it was also wonderful to go with him to England for the Q school. And with that – be able to see such eternal friends as the McDonalds. We enjoy any trips down to our place in Arizona. We spent last Christmas there. As Shannon mentioned, we went to Arizona and then to NYC for our 30th anniversary, and then for a mini-reunion with Shannon's family. After that trip, I was honoured to go to Sara and Tyson's Wedding – which was like a mini-reunion of my family. Too much fun for me – I think. I've done a fair amount of steelhead fishing and seems to have gotten addicted to it again. I am even going out in minus 18 degrees to fish. It didn't last long because my fingers nearly fall off but the allure of catching the steelhead is all consuming. I still serve as the 1st Councillor in the Branch Presidency. The Gorbahn Challenge – There is no disputing it this year – NONE – Even Luke cannot spin it! All four days of golf in Vegas found me on the winning side (even with "Luke's Rules"); although, I must say – they were close and Luke is really playing very good golf. Now – on to the fishing - Luke, Aaron ("Adam") and Troy came over to Smithers to do some steelhead fishing. We had probably the most amazing day of fishing which caused my obsession this fall for steelhead fishing. Massive fish and plenty of them were caught. The problem with Luke, though was that he could only hook into them and not bring them in. I will certainly take the honors of being The Gorbahn Challenge Champion this year! I am looking forward to this coming summer for our official Gorbahn Family Reunion. I look forward to seeing many of you.

We love you all and wish the very best for you, always! With all our love,

Dana, Shannon, Kai, Taaron, Kaleb, Jaddy, Frost, and Louie!
