

DANA AND SHANNON GORBAHN FAMILY

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS & HISTORY LETTER – 2022

Hey Everyone,

Let's start with an amazing quote that Shannon used in her last talk that – if applied – will bring the world such peace and happiness:

"This year, mend a quarrel. Seek out a forgotten friend. Dismiss suspicion and replace it with trust. Write a letter. Give a soft answer. Encourage youth. Manifest your loyalty in word and deed. Keep a promise. Forgo a grudge. Forgive an enemy. Apologize. Try to understand. Examine your demands on others. Think first of someone else. Be kind. Be gentle. Laugh a little more. Express your gratitude. Welcome a stranger. Gladden the heart of a child. Take pleasure in the beauty and wonder of the earth. Speak your love and then speak it again." – Howard W. Hunter

Jadyn: Hello everybody! This year's been a busy year! I started working at GPAR doing night shifts, I love my individuals especially when they stay asleep at night lol and then also I've been nannying for a wonderful family a few days a week and then I recently started doing an after-school program which has been alright but I'm just happy to have something to do for a few hours! I went on a few trips this summer, I visited Kai in Calgary, went to the family reunion (it was so awesome to see some of you♥) and then we got to go to Toronto to be on family feud!!! It was SO much fun, I wish we could do it again. The only new thing lately is that I'm moving out of my house into a super nice bachelor suite at the end of this month, I'm excited for the change! I'm hoping this new year will be full on new adventures and lots of road trips. I hope everyone is doing well and having an awesome Christmas! Love you all!

Kaleb: Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to you all! 2022 was a year that will stick with me for a long time for many reasons. There were highs and there were lows, but the highs will always out way those lows. My wonderful wife Lauren and I are together at last. After the first 6 months of a long distance marriage, while she was at school and I was traveling chasing my dream, she took a fully remote job with Trader Co. as a Marketing brand coordinator. This job has allowed her to travel with me and the memories we shared in our first full year of marriage will be something that we both will cherish forever. This year for me on the golf course was a year of hardship and doubt. Even though I feel like my game has been elevated in certain aspects, the results have not shown themselves. I find myself always demanding results and when they don't come I create false narratives about myself, namely that I'm just not good enough and wrestling with the thought of walking away and giving up on my dream almost on a weekly basis. Fortunately, I have in my life 3 major influences that continue to support me constantly. My parents, who you all know are the most incredible people guiding and encouraging me to chase my desires. My wife, who always shows me love and understanding. Finally, God, who has saved me and knows the desires of my heart, and who wants what's best for me. I am always watching for Him to guide me and He has yet to guide me away from this game. I still have much growth to do and whether the PGA tour is the end result or not, I know He wants me on this path right now. I will leave you with a scripture verse that I have read recently and that my lovely wife highlighted in our bible. "until the time came to fulfil his dreams, the Lord tested Joseph's character" Psalm 106:19.

I thank everyone for their support of me and my wife. A special thanks to Heidi and Dave Petty for putting up with us in Vancouver. They are another blessing in our life that can't go unrecognized. Merry Christmas everyone! Lauren and I love you all!

Taaron: Hey all! What an amazing year it has been! Where do I even begin? I guess I should start with the fact that I beat my dad at golf for the very first time! My new membership at Victoria Golf Club is already paying off! Work has been fantastic. In addition to growing my team, and taking on new and exciting responsibilities, I've also been able to attend our sponsored conferences in New York City, San Diego, and Las Vegas (twice!). They're amazing opportunities to meet up and bond with colleagues, especially when I work remotely here in Victoria and my team is all over the world. There were so many amazing things that happened this year. As I'm sure you know, we filmed episode(s) of "Family Feud Canada" in Toronto. An absolutely unforgettable experience. Catch it/them on TV sometime in Jan/Feb! If I had to pick a highlight for this year, it would be my big vacation with Kai and my friends to LA. After a lot of planning, our trip took us to Universal Studios, Disneyland, and finished with a 4-day Royal Caribbean cruise to Mexico! It turned out spectacular and it was such a special time I got to spend with some truly exceptional people. Here's to an even better 2023! Happy holidays everyone!

Kai: Merry Christmas everyone! It's that time of year again. Another cold season has rolled into Calgary - but before things completely froze over, I was able to escape for a week in California with my brother, Taaron. My amazing brother treated me to a cruise! What an amazing time. I also got to fly to Toronto to participate in Family Feud Canada; and during the summer I was able to dip down to Vancouver for the long-anticipated Family Reunion. Lots of great memories were had this year and I'm grateful for every single one of them. I've been serving at Milestones for over a year now and I'm so lucky to have a job that I love, with people I care about. Life is good! Love you all!

Shannon: Merry Christmas Family and Friends it has been a wonderful year. I am feeling very blessed with our safety and health. I continue to teach Yoga at our studio but was able to take the summer off, where we traveled to the Gorbahn family Reunion in Mission. So wonderful to see everyone and reconnect. I continued on to Arizona with our Pup and stayed in our home in Maricopa for over a month with Dana flying down and joining me for a couple weeks. I surprised him and had most of the house painted. My good friend Marzena also joined me after Dana left and we drove home together so nice to have the company, stopping in Vegas and taking in a David Copperfield Show. In Sept we attended my Dads 80th Birthday Party for a reunion on my side with Dads wonderful friends. It was a great time to also reconnect and see so many we may not of otherwise. Have a blessed year we think of you all often.

Dana: It's been a great year in being able to do a lot of different things now that COVID regulations are relaxing a bit. My semi-retirement hasn't really panned out like I had hoped but I am not complaining about the amount of work that I am needing to do. It keeps me active in being relevant. Three years ago, I resigned from some work positions, Boards, and Provincial committees but some of these things are starting to come back as I am being asked to be a part of these advisories and Boards again – and you know that I like to share my two cents in the things that are important to me – so I am once again on some Local and Provincial Boards. For the first part of the year, I have kept myself very busy with officiating basketball. I again was selected to do the Provincial Championships in Langley. It's always a great opportunity (including learning and evaluation). I also get to see my mom (best part of that)! In the spring, Shannon and I got to go to Arizona to see the house and do some work on it (laying floors). We planted some new trees in the back including queen palms, a date palm, and a pomegranate tree. We sold our car down there and bought another one that didn't leak oil; however, this one burnt it. Fortunately, we had a warranty and they fixed it for us. The turbo system was shot so that had to be changed. It was something like $11k. We weren't impressed with the service since it took over two months to repair. Fortunately, we didn't need it since we were back in Canada. After our time in Arizona, we headed over to LA and picked up Kaleb. On our way over to LA, we stayed and visited with Aunt Rita for the night! What a wonderful meal and hostess she is! We got to play a round of golf with Mark and had dinner with him and Brendalee. So nice to spend a bit of time with them. Kaleb then dropped us off at the cruise terminal and we took a cruise from LA to Vancouver. Our stop in Victoria was cancelled because of strong winds so we weren't able to see Taaron then. The summer was a pretty busy one. My Chrysler 300 broke down and I had to sell it to the junk yard. That was sad – cause I sure like that car. I bought another car in Victoria which Taaron looked at for me. Like the car in Arizona, this one had lots of problems not know before purchasing it and unlike the last one, the warranty never covered it. That cost $10k to fix everything but now it's a pretty nice car to have. I tried to golf every morning (except Sundays) before anyone is on the course. I get my rounds completed in just over 2 hours (depending upon how many balls I have to look for that day). I got to go to Victoria to caddy for Kaleb in the PGA Canada Tour event there; and then a few weeks later in Edmonton for the Monday Qualifier. After the qualifier, I went down to spend a bit of time with Kai. This summer saw me mowing a ton of lawns (personal, work, and rentals) which I actually enjoy. Jadyn is embarrassed when I use the ride on lawnmower. Imagine Bowser (Super Mario Cart). That's me. One day I needed to take one of my ride-ons across town, so I just drove it. It was a funny sight to see me passing the local brewery/pub with people outside video taping me riding past them. Jadyn would have died. I wanted to yell out and proclaim that "I am Jadyn Gorbahn's dad"! We had our Gorbahn Family Reunion in mid July. I sure love seeing all of my family and really appreciate their efforts to be together. No drama, except for Luke's emotional breakdown from not beating me in the golf tournament. A couple of weeks later, I played in the BC Seniors Golf Championships in Victoria. I got to spend the time with Taaron and just prior to the tournament, Taaron took me to his golf club (Victoria Golf Club) where he proceeded to use the home course advantage to beat his dad for the very first time (by two strokes). He has now earned a golf trip of his choice (with me). He played and puttied so well. Those greens there are so tough but what a beautiful setting right on the ocean! A little later in the summer, I flew down to Arizona to be with Shannon and Oliver. We did some really great stuff, ate lots, and painted the house. I returned home to continue with the summer chores and routines. That was fairly short lived since I went back to Arizona for a fairly long duration in September. My friend Lon joined me for some rounds of golf and so did Luke and his son Travis. When they weren't there, I worked on the yard. I moved a ton of landscaping rocks. The place looks great!! While down there, we had some significant problems with work (at home) to the point that I was almost ready to fly home. Fortunately, with technology and help from my wife we were able to minimize some of it. I didn't really want to fly home because Family Feud Canada had already purchased my flight to Toronto. We were accepted the previous year but we couldn't give them any dates that would work for the filming. So they asked us if we could this year. Again, with all of our schedules, we were only able to give them one weekend. We didn't think that anything would happen but to our surprise – they picked us for that weekend. So with all of the kids getting flown to Toronto to meet with me we went and competed on the Family Feud Canada game show. It was so much fun and the airing(s) is/are supposed to be some time in late February 2023. We are not allowed to disclose the results. After returning, it was back to working. I've done a little bit of fishing but its been a tough go with the weather freezing up the rivers and limited fish being around. I took a work trip to Vancouver but was able to spend some time with my angel - mom (6th trip of the year) before and after them.

Gorbahn Challenge: Luke chose to do other things instead of coming over to Smithers to compete in the fishing leg of the competition; however, we did have our Greater Gorbahn Open Golf Tournament during our Family Reunion and Luke did not prevail over his little (debatable) and younger brother. Therefore, Dana is continuing to win the Gorbahn Challenge for an unprecedented 25 years continuous.

We love you all and wish the very best for you, always! With all our Love - Dana, Shannon, Kai, Taaron, Kaleb, Jaddy, Frost, Louie, Oliver, and Kali!
